May 21, 1927.

Miss Lorene Collier,
Florence, Texas.

My dear Lorene:

I received the invitation to your Commencement exercises and your Graduation, and I assure you that I much appreciated same.

We are sending you, by today's parcel post, a little gift, Silk Rayon Bloomers, which we trust you will enjoy wearing. These I purchased last week while I was in New York City.

Some day I hope to know you personally.

Let me assure you one thing, and that is while you are young be sure, if possible, and secure a College education, as it will last you all through life, and bring you more for the dollars expended than any other investment you can make.

With love from the Collier families here in Georgia, and with most cordial good wishes from the writer, I remain

Yours sincerely,

JCC:S

P. S. Please pardon a dictated letter. It is bad form, but I just have not the time to write one out in long hand. Every moment is taken up and many engagements far ahead.